

Fellow Blues,

Due to age, health matters, and other concerns, my son Ron, and I have decided to put aside our muskets and retire from skirmishing permanently. Our years spent with the Washington Blue Rifles have been ones of great joy, pride, and exhilaration, never to be forgotten. We wish all of you great success in furthering the legacy of skirmishing's premier team. May God bless and keep you safe.

Ron Wolford
Ron Wolford Jr.